Feeding your day with inspiration — salads, soups and bread is what we do.

One word describes the experience of colour palate... Invigorating

Our food, our service and our eating-environment is designed to invigorate people, so we can all more fully live our lives as a work of art. Whatever you’re doing add colour to it.

Colour-full and refreshing greens accented with bursts of red, yellow purple and orange are “crafted for you but not by you.” Our soups and breads are hand crafted for the soul.

At colour palate our salad crafters craft more than meals...we create experiences that invigorate your day’s art.

Life can always use a little more colour!
